It is dirty, but it's profoundly dirty. I will even go as far as saying that it was better than 50 Shades of Grey because it has better story line. The main character, Elle, is broken because of her traumatic childhood. She is a logical, analytical person who has three coping mechanisms that allow her to stop thinking: drinking, counting, and f-ing. I've never cried so hard in a book as I did ...

Dirty (Dan and Elle #1) 8:00 pm 14 August 2012. The TBR Challenge theme for August is hot, steamy reads. In a sense, the book I chose, Megan Hart's Dirty, published by Harlequin Spice in 2007, fits the bill. The story contains plentiful sex scenes, and they certainly are steamy. However, that's not what stands out most about this book. This story contains some of the most intense plotting ...

Dirty (Dan and Elle #1) 2:00 am 10 January 2013. I will give you that, it was dirty and hot...really dirty and hot. But as I am a known sex scene skimmer I do want more than that. And here it just did not work.Elle was, well yes I know the whole point was that she was cold and needed to find the way to love and be loved again. But I never connected to her. As for Dan, him I never knew at all ...
