Neville Goddard's work is so meaty. He breaks down what you need to do & see in your minds eye SO clearly. He is a insightful writer who was ahead of his time. One of the genius fathers of the Science of Mind movement, he is by far my favorite. The Neville Reader is an awesome compilation of the best of the best of several of his writings.

~~The Neville Reader by Neville Goddard - Goodreads~~

Neville Goddard was born in Barbados in 1905 and was generally known by the single given name Neville. By 1926, Neville's interest in metaphysics led him to the Rosicrucian Society, the Qabalah and the Hebrew text Bible. There he found the underpinnings for what is described as the law of consciousness. Neville viewed the Bible much like a hologram.

Having Neville's books in one edition is a great idea. Those used to an orthodox literal reading of the Bible may find it hard to digest what Neville has to say, but persevere. He had a great teacher in Abdullah, and shared his knowledge with anyone who was willing to listen. The Bible makes far more sense when interpreted symbolically.
